

IIA Armenia Newsletter

IIA ARMENIA NEWS

Status Change

The IIA Institute Relations Committee (IRC) approved to change the status of IIA Armenia from Institute-in-Formation to Institute. This change is effective as of 3 December 2015.

IIA NEWS

Call for 2016 IIA award nominations

The IIA is asking for your nominations for its three highest and most prestigious awards. All three awards recognise individuals who have made outstanding achievements in the field of internal auditing. Learn more about the qualifications, the nomination form and the special recognition recipients will receive. The deadline for nominations is 28 February.

Guidance webinar: "Getting to Know the Proposed Changes to the Standards"

On 11 February, IIA Global Headquarters will host a guidance webinar to educate global members on proposed changes for the International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing (Standards) exposure, which will start on 1 February. The webinar is worth one CPE credit for those attending the live presentation, scheduled from 1 to 2pm Eastern Standard Time. Learn how you can participate in the exposure process.

Internal Audit Practitioner: A New First Step on Your Road to Success

The IIA's new Internal Audit Practitioner designation supports new and rotational auditors, establishing a common foundation of skills and knowledge related to internal audit's Standards and best practices. Eligible individuals who have passed Part One of the Certified Internal Auditor® (CIA®) exam may apply.

IIA Certifications Drive your career forward!

Download the Complete CBOK Report Bundle

Did you miss any of the 13 reports from the 2015 Global Internal Audit Common Body of Knowledge (CBOK) Practitioner Study? Catch up by downloading the complete bundle now for free.

IIA PUBLICATIONS

Tone at the Top: Beyond the Numbers

Recruiting, Developing, and Retaining

NEW PG! Internal Audit and the Second line of Defense

Internal Auditor Magazine:
The Trusted Adviser